STUDENT TRIP TRANSPORTATION

Government legislation requires that all children who are less than 80 pounds and 8 years old being transported by car must be in a booster seat. All students in Grades JK through 5 will be transported to all outside class trips and sporting activities by bus. Students in Grades 6-8 will mostly be transported by bus however, there might be occasions when older students will be driven to sporting events by volunteer drivers (parents) using their own vehicles. All volunteer drivers must have a minimum $1,000,000 auto insurance coverage. All students transported must have access to and wear a seatbelt.
